

Emerging Therapies – let's focus on CAR T cell therapy nursing challenges and considerations

Friday 12th October 2018

Hallam Conference Centre, 44 Hallam St, Marylebone, London W1W 6JJ

Chairs: Órla Stewart, King's College Hospital London
Nikki McKeag, University Hospital Southampton

09.30 Registration

- | | | |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.00 | Welcome – let's set the scene | Dr Christian Chabannon
Chair of EBMT CTIWP |
| 10.15 | Biology of CAR T cells – the science | Dr Elaine Vickers
Founder of Science Communicated Ltd |
| 11.00 | Coffee | |
| 11.15 | The history of CARs | Dr Reuben Benjamin, Consultant Haematologist
King's College Hospital London |
| 11.45 | Autologous CARs – experience to date | Dr Claire Roddie, Consultant Haematologist
UCLH |
| 12.15 | An ITU perspective – patients and side effects | Dr Victoria Metaxa, Consultant in Critical Care
King's College Hospital London |

12.45 Lunch

Chairs: Órla Stewart and Rose Ellard, King's College Hospital London

- | | | |
|--------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| 13.30 | Patient experience of CAR T cell therapy | Matthew, Patient representative |
| 14.15 | Neurological toxicities with CAR T cell therapy | Danielle Pinner and Jan Chu, GOSH |
| 14.45 | Coffee | |
| 15.00 | Cytokine Release Syndrome | Rose Ellard, King's College Hospital London |
| 15.20 | Managing expectations and other considerations
- referral pathway and sharing experience | Nikki McKeag & Órla Stewart |
| 16.00 | Summary | Órla Stewart |
| 16.15 | Close | |

This meeting has been put together by the Chairs Orla Stewart, Nikki McKeag and Rose Ellard as an expert panel, facilitated by Hartley Taylor Ltd.

Gilead Kite have provided the financial support for this event but had no input on the programme design or the choice of speakers.

Registration is free of charge for haematology nurses – please go on-line at www.hartleytaylor.co.uk