NCRI Lymphoma Trials Day

Friday 11th November 2022

Cavendish Conference Centre, 22 Duchess Mews, Marylebone, London

This important meeting for lymphoma trials will be held as face to face in 2022 and will be a welcome return to the event that was pre-covid held annually. There will be a full day of review of clinical trials by members of the NCRI Lymphoma Group. The format will be short presentations and discussion throughout the day.

The NCRI Lymphoma Group consists of an executive group, chaired by Professor Andrew Pettitt, which provides oversight of the research landscape and proactively identifies opportunities for the group. The NCRI Lymphoma Group also has several study groups that develop research in areas of strategic need.
