

WMUK – study day for nurses

Updates in Waldenström's Macroglobulinaemia

Friday 9th September 2022 (09.00-17.00)

Hallam Conference Centre, 44 Hallam Street, Marylebone, London

Available on Hybrid Platform for virtual attendees

(Delegates are encouraged to come in-venue for the networking opportunity)

9.00 Registration

Session 1 – Updates

- | | | |
|-------|--|---|
| 09.30 | WMUK Introduction | Jane Nicholson, CEO of WMUK |
| | Updates and challenges | |
| | WMUK Support line roll out | |
| 10.00 | Overview of WM and 1 st Line treatments | Dr Shirley D'Sa, UCLH |
| | Questions | |
| 10.30 | Latest BSH guidelines on WM – best practice | Dr Dima El-Sharkawi, Royal Marsden |
| | Questions | |

11.00 Coffee and networking

Session 2 – Living with WM, the patient and nurse relationship

- | | | |
|-------|--|--|
| 11.30 | A WM patient discussing their experience with their CNS | |
| | - patient experience of being diagnosed with WM | |
| | - nursing challenges of managing a rare disease | |
| 12.00 | Importance of interaction with colleagues and the most common side effects in WM disease | Aviva Cerner and Emma Rowles
Clinical Nurse Specialists at UCLH |
| 12.20 | Peripheral neuropathy – cases | Guest Speaker: Dr Aisling Carr
Neurologist, Queen Square Hospital, London |
| 12.50 | Discussion | |

13.00 Lunch and networking

Session 3 - Clinical issues and decisions

- 13.50 What are the different treatment options 2nd line and beyond in Relapse WM
- Regional variations
 - Clinical trials – what's available

Dr Jaimal Kothari, Oxford

14.20 Discussion

14.30 Supporting the whole family and practical support

15.00 Coffee break

Session 4 – Case studies with the panel

- Lucy Whiteman, Royal Marsden
- Heather Millar, Royal Marsden
- Katherine Wright, Newcastle

Nurse Panel:

Charlotte Bloodworth, Cardiff

Aviva Cerner, UCLH

Emma Rowles, UCLH

15.30 Managing toxicities

16.00 Questions from the virtual attendees

16.15 Summary and close

Registration and enquiries via www.hartleytaylor.co.uk or email laura@hartleytaylor.co.uk

This meeting has kindly been supported by an educational sponsorship for BeiGene who have had no input into the design of the programme or choice of speakers